SUPERSEDING INDICTMENT

The United States Grand Jury Charges:

Introduction

1. At all times relevant to the Superseding Indictment, the defendants were members of or associated with various white supremacists organizations, including the “Aryan Brotherhood of Texas,” the “Aryan Circle,” the “Irish Mob,” and the “Dirty White Boys” and engaged in a conspiracy to distribute methamphetamine and other illegal narcotics throughout the Northern District of Texas and elsewhere.

Criminal Organizations

2. The “Aryan Brotherhood of Texas” (ABT) was a white supremacist gang based in Texas. The ABT originated in Texas prisons in the 1980s. The ABT offered protection to “white” inmates if they joined the gang. Over time, the ABT expanded and maintained a presence outside of prisons. ABT members referred to the gang as the “family.” Members of the ABT often referred to themselves as soldiers or “peckerwoods” (males) or “featherwoods” (females). The ABT is also an organized crime group that has put its “business” interests ahead of ideology in recent years. These business interests often take the form of criminal ventures, including drug-dealing.

3. The “Aryan Circle” was white supremacist gang based primarily in Texas. The Aryan Circle prison gang formed when certain ABT members splintered off to form what they believed was a more ideologically pure group. Aryan Circle members believe in the complete separation of the races. The Aryan Circle is also an organized crime group, but, like the ABT, in recent years, its white supremacy ideology often takes a backseat to traditional criminal ventures, such as drug-dealing.

4. The “Irish Mob,” as that term is used in this Superseding Indictment, is a criminal organization with a presence in Tulsa, Oklahoma. The Irish Mob was formed in the early 1990s in Tulsa. Members often refer to themselves as “Jrihar” or “brother.” Irish Mob members often engage in drug-dealing.

5. The “Dirty White Boys” is a criminal organization which originated in the Federal Bureau of Prisons in 1985 and stems from the name of a prison softball team. The Dirty White Boys gang is closely associated with the Aryan Brotherhood of Texas and other white supremacy organizations. The Dirty White Boys gang is involved in the distribution of illegal narcotics.

6. Despite their differences, the ABT, Aryan Circle, Irish Mob, and Dirty White Boys often collaborate for purposes of drug distribution or other illegal ventures.
